2015 Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

We love Sauv Blanc. In fact, we were the first to produce Sauvignon Blanc in New Zealand way back in 1974. It was a bit of a new kid on the block then. Some folks even mistakenly thought we'd made white Cabernet Sauvignon.

Since then, New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc has exploded onto the world stage creating fans wherever it has gone. It's now the most popular wine from New Zealand. We're proud to have started that revolution and now we're bringing you our new range of wines to help you explore even more – because not all Sauvignon Blanc tastes the same. There are many factors that make it such an interesting grape variety like the regions where we grow the grapes and the yeasts chosen by our winemakers.

We have created a range of delicious Sauvignon Blancs – Smooth, Crisp and Lighter – each with their own distinct style so you can find one that best suits you. This little beauty is our crisp expression.

How it tastes

This is a classic Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc - mouth-wateringly crisp with citrus fruit, topped with fresh pineapple and guava. Herbaceous sage and mint characters linger to a super refreshing finish.

What we eat with it

Fresh fish lightly seasoned with Mediterranean herbs, lightly pan fried. Serve with some seasonal veg (we love asparagus) and plenty of lemon juice.
