2015 Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

We love Sauv Blanc. In fact, we were the first to produce Sauvignon Blanc in New Zealand way back in 1974. It was a bit of a new kid on the block then. Some folks even mistakenly thought we'd made white Cabernet Sauvignon.

Since then, New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc has exploded onto the world stage creating fans wherever it has gone. It's now the most popular wine from New Zealand. We're proud to have started that revolution and now we're bringing you our new range of wines to help you explore even more – because not all Sauvignon Blanc tastes the same. There are many factors that make it such an interesting grape variety like the regions where we grow the grapes and the yeasts chosen by our winemakers.

We have created a range of delicious Sauvignon Blancs – Smooth, Crisp and Lighter – each with their own distinct style so you can find one that best suits you. This little beauty is our lighter expression.

How it tastes

This Sauvy has that classic Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc flavour you love, but with less of the calories you don't. The nose is mouth-wateringly vibrant with gooseberry and tropical fruit characters. The palate doesn't skimp on flavour either, bursting with citrus and natural acidity all wrapped up in great structure and a lengthy finish. This is a lighter style Sauvignon Blanc with 25% less alcohol and calories*. Cheers to that!

What we eat with it

A fresh, summery salad. We're thinking fresh spinach, avocado, raspberries and toasted pinenuts. Delicious!
