2014 Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

We love Sauv Blanc. In fact, we were the first to produce Sauvignon Blanc in New Zealand way back in 1974. It was a bit of new kid on the block then. Some folks even mistakenly thought we'd made white Cabernet Sauvignon.

Since then, New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc has exploded onto the world stage, creating fans wherever it has gone. It's now the most popular wine from New Zealand. We're proud to have started that revolution and now we're bringing you our new range of wines to help you explore even more - because not all Sauvignon Blanc tastes the same. There are many factors that make it such an interesting grape variety like the regions where we grow the grapes and the yeasts chosen by our winemakers.

We have created a range of 3 delicious Sauvignon Blancs - Smooth, Crisp and Lighter - each with their own distinct style so you can find one that best suits you. This little beauty is our crisp expression.

How it Tastes

This is classic Marlborough Sauv Blanc. Vibrant tropical and citrus fruits - think passionfruit & pink grapefruit - with fresh, crisp acidity. All backed with lovely herbaceous notes of sage and mint.

What we eat with it

Our favourite is freshly caught snapper straight from the sea, lightly pan fried with smoky sea salt. Add some white bread and a healthy dose of fresh lemon juice. Superb!
