2014 Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

We love Sauv Blanc. In fact, we were the first to produce Sauvignon Blanc in New Zealand way back in 1974. It was a bit of a new kid on the block then. Some folks even mistakenly thought we'd made white Cabernet Sauvignon.

Since then, New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc has exploded onto the world stage creating fans wherever it has gone. It's now the most popular wine from New Zealand. We're proud to have started that revolution and now we're bringing you our new range of wines to help you explore even more – because not all Sauvignon Blanc tastes the same. There are many factors that make it such an interesting grape variety like the regions where we grow the grapes and the yeasts chosen by our winemakers.

We have created a range of delicious Sauvignon Blancs – Smooth, Crisp and Lighter – each with their own distinct style so you can find one that best suits you. This little beauty is our lighter expression.

How it tastes

This Sauvy packs all the flavour you want, but less of the calories you don't. Classic Marlborough Sauv Blanc flavours burst through the zesty palate – we're talking lifted gooseberry and fresh tropical fruit. Lively with vibrant acidity, this wine has fantastic length. This is a lighter style, but doesn't go easy on flavour giving you all the taste of classic Marlborough Sauv Blanc with 25% less alcohol and calories*.

What we eat with it

We love fun, fresh summer salads with this wine. Our fave right now is grilled chicken breast, Haloumi, fresh strawberries and walnuts tossed together with baby cos lettuce and served with a drizzle of white balsamic vinegar. Mmm!
